Overview

In this prestigious event leading Management Consultancies will be exploring “Opportunities in the Post-Crisis Economy” – an exclusive Insider’s Insight. A panel discussion on the energy sector and a series of speeches by senior executives will provide for a high-profile forum for the discussion of opportunities arising from the economic upturn.

Prospective students will get a unique chance to talk to our speakers as well as their HR representatives during our networking lunch and a drinks reception after the conference.

Students in any discipline interested in Management Consulting and those eager to gain precious commercial awareness for all type of interviews are welcome to attend the conference.

Registration at the door – £3
